

Research Participation Letter (Template)

Date: _____

Dear Parent,

Today your child participated in a research project about _____. Your child (please describe the game or activity).

We are interested in (please describe to families the general concept of the research question).

We thank you and your child for you child’s participation in this project. This important research helps us learn (please describe in one sentence).

Human Subjects Code Number: _____

Research Title: _____

Researcher Name(s): _____

Supervising Faculty Member: _____